The transparent dome: a plant-filled cocoon with a view over all of Paris

White, gold, and green, the first floor of the Tower is decorated with festive winter colors! Featuring a transparent dome over the central bar and comfy seats, padded with cushions and throw blankets, the space is perfect for snuggling up and getting cozy. Here, visitors are invited to enjoy the incredible view of the capital, while enjoying a few delicious treats. Decorated in gold hues, LED string lights and a ceiling of plants, the dome is an invitation to share a magical moment, at a height of 187 feet.

A menu full of festive flavors

Visitors can enjoy local gourmet products on site, some of which have been carefully selected from the Eiffel Tower Artisans Guild. Choose from a raclette platter with potatoes and cheese from Savoie or Ile-de-France, or, if you feel like something sweet, crepes, waffles and sweets with festive flavors such as candied orange peel, glazed chestnuts, and nougat.

Santa Claus parks his sleigh at the Eiffel Tower!

Come and meet Santa Claus, who will be on the first floor on 7, 10, 11 and 14 December, then every day from 17 to 24 December* before heading off to deliver presents...

A photobooth will also be set up on the terrace as well as inside the Ferrié Pavilion. Whether solo, with family or friends, everyone can immortalize their trip to the Eiffel Tower with jolly old Santa!

 During this period, you can meet Santa Claus from 10am to 6pm during the week and 10am to 8pm on weekends.*
